The sheet music consists of four staves of music for soprano recorder, each starting with a treble clef and a 3/4 time signature. The first staff begins with a dotted half note followed by quarter notes for sol, la, sol, do, and si. Below the notes are five vertical rectangles representing finger holes, each with a black dot indicating which finger to press. The second staff begins with a dotted half note followed by quarter notes for sol, la, sol, ré, and do. The third staff begins with a dotted half note followed by quarter notes for sol, sol, mi, do, si, and la. The fourth staff begins with a dotted half note followed by quarter notes for fa, fa, mi, do, ré, and do. Below the notes are six vertical rectangles representing finger holes, each with a black dot indicating which finger to press. The labels B and A are placed under the first two staves.

B : doigté baroque
A : doigté allemand
